

The card Bishop Danilo sent to Holy Transfiguration Monastery shortly before his repose

[In Greek]: Many years, Father Panteleimon, and to your Synodia.

[In Greek]: Your blessing.

[In Greek]: My beloved Father and Elder: My great departure is close. Thanks to you I had a glimpse of the monastic holiness and patristic erudition: Fr. Florovsky, Fr. Romanides and the unforgettable lector of my thesis Fr. Stockton. But when we look around: many local churches are crumbling, except the monks. Ye stay straight. My last word. [In Slavonic]: Forgive me and remember me.
